Celebrating 10 Years of Peace on Track

YOUR OPPORTUNITY TO SUPPORT 10 YEARS OF PEACE ON TRACK

---

CONFERENCE PURPOSE

For 10 years, thousands of activists around the globe have leveraged the Gandhi King Season for Nonviolence (founded by the Association for Global New Thought and the Gandhi Institute for Nonviolence) as an opportunity to build and launch some of the most cutting edge peace programs of our generation. The Season book-ends the memorial anniversaries of Mahatma Gandhi (January 30) and Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. (April 4). Since its inception, this exemplary leadership has put Peace on Track in more than 400 U.S. cities and 18 countries through programs aimed at reducing violence in our homes, schools, and communities — laying the tracks for cultural transformation grounded in the Gandhi King vision.

In celebration of the 10th Anniversary of the Season for Nonviolence, this conference will gather over 500 of the country's leading, cutting-edge innovators of nonviolent activism. Using a unique, highly-interactive conferencing format, the Gandhi King Peace Train and Living Legends of Nonviolence Conference are designed to explore best-practices in nonviolent activism by putting local grassroots leaders and Living Legends of Nonviolence at the same table. The conference will culminate in the creation of a new model for omni-local, spiritually based nonviolent governance. In addition, this event will launch the Perennial Season for Nonviolence, in which unwavering nonviolence in thought, word and action becomes our chosen way of life.

Celebrating 10 Years of Spiritually-Based Nonviolent Activism Rooted in the Gandhi King Tradition

This conference provides an exceptional opportunity to gain national exposure for your support of violence prevention and socially conscious leadership. We have designed an exceptional, once-in-a-lifetime event that we believe will serve as the hallmark for future collaborative nonviolent activism on local, regional, national and international levels. Your sponsorship contribution provides event producer, The Association for Global New Thought, with essential financial support toward conference expenses. And it helps ensure the continued growth of our leadership and support for this vital work on a global scale.

ABOUT CONFERENCE PRODUCER, THE ASSOCIATION FOR GLOBAL NEW THOUGHT

Once called the “religion of healthy-mindedness” by the philosopher William James, the New Thought movement was born almost 150 years ago as a revolt against the negative dogmas so prevalent in the churches of that day. The early New Thought movement was driven by the discovery that physical healing was possible through the power of mind and spiritual awareness. As that initial idea unfolded into successful application, practitioners of New Thought began to see that the power of an uplifted consciousness could also bring healing to negative circumstances and conditions in one’s personal life. As this “uniquely American religion” evolves today, twenty-first century New Thought is driven by a far broader intention. Planetary healing through self-realization is emerging as the new promise of these teachings.

The Association for Global New Thought (AGNT) was co-founded in 1996 to represent the leading edge of the New Thought lineage. Its constituent member churches among Unity, Religious Science, and non- denominational New Thought spiritual communities are called forth by a deep commitment to bring the principles and practices of cocreation into the larger world. Out of a deep conviction and pure passion to give our movement a clear voice and commanding presence on the global stage, the Association for Global New Thought was born.

The core purpose of the Association for Global New Thought (AGNT) is to consciously bring forth the evolving human and an awakened world through the practice of universal spiritual principles and the energy of unconditional love. We invite you to learn more about this movement and its global initiatives for peace, justice and healing, and in the process discover your own spiritual calling.

EVENT SCOPE

GANDHI KING PEACE TRAIN

We anticipate attendance of approximately 250-400 people for the Gandhi King Peace Train, which includes participation on four custom chartered railcars and two private Amtrak railcars. Due to the unique nature of this moving conference, we anticipate registration to close in mid November. In addition, we anticipate that the procession Whistle Stops will attract hundreds of local citizens, government officials, and the media.

LIVING LEGENDS OF NONVIOLENCE CONFERENCE

We anticipate attendance of approximately 500-700 people for the Living Legends of Nonviolence Conference. Due to the highly participatory format of this event, and representation from the world’s leading Gandhi King contemporaries, we anticipate registration to close in mid November.

PARTICIPANTS OF THESE EVENTS WILL INCLUDE REPRESENTATION FROM THE FOLLOWING DEMOGRAPHICS, ORGANIZATIONS AND GROUPS:

- GANDHI KING CONTEMPORARIES (Season for Nonviolence task forces leaders, citizen peacemakers, grassroots organizers)
- SEASON FOR NONVIOLENCE AND ASSOCIATION FOR GLOBAL NEW THOUGHT LEADERSHIP COUNCILS
- GOVERNMENT AND POLICY MAKERS (local and regional government officials)
- CONFLICT RESOLUTION / NEGOTIATIONS ORGANIZATIONS AND LEADERS (local, regional and national)
- NONVIOLENT ACTIVISM LEADERS AND ORGANIZATIONS (local, regional and national)
- FAMILY PROGRAMS (nonprofit and for profit; local, regional and national)

EVENT PROGRAM

APRIL 18-19, 2007

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 18, 2007

PEACE TRAIN KICK-OFF CELEBRATION

LOS ANGELES, CA • AGAPE INTERNATIONAL
SPIRITUAL CENTER • 7:00PM

Join this citywide kick-off to celebrate a Decade of Peace on Track with Season for Nonviolence task force leaders and representatives of the Gandhi and King legacies. Government and civic leaders will join Living Legends of Nonviolence to acknowledge the Gandhi King Season as a living laboratory that has launched some of the most cutting-edge peace programs of our generation.

For the first time in a decade we'll convene Season task force leaders from around the globe, the AGNT leadership council, youth delegations, surprise guests, and the Agape International Choir for a dynamic evening of inspiration and celebration.

LIVING LEGENDS AWARD CEREMONY

This evening event will include a presentation of Living Legends of Nonviolence Distinguished Leader awards to the nation's most cutting-edge, and internationally recognized Gandhi King contemporaries.

THURSDAY, APRIL 19, 2007

PEACE TRAIN PROCESSION

LOS ANGELES, CA TO SAN JOSE, CA

Get on board the Peace Train — a once in a lifetime traveling conference celebrating 10 years of successful peace activism. Moving from LA to San Jose, these privately chartered, custom rail cars will host hundreds of citizen peacemakers, Season task force leaders, Living Legends, government officials, musicians and performers in a highly interactive, on-board program of teach-ins, group discussions, music and meditations. This is your chance to sit with peers and Living Legends of Nonviolence to reflect on your biggest successes and challenges of the past decade.

This “moving” journey will set the stage for the Friday conference, fuelling the engines of your commitment for future achievements in nonviolent activism.

PEACE TRAIN WHISTLE STOPS

At Whistle Stops along the route, local officials and media will be invited to meet the Peace Train and local teams leading a motor coach caravan from stop to stop. Whistle Stops will provide an exceptional opportunity to generate additional event exposure to the general public, government officials, key decision-makers, and the media.

EVENT PROGRAM

APRIL 20-21, 2007

FRIDAY, APRIL 20, 2007

LIVING LEGENDS OF NONVIOLENCE NATIONAL CONFERENCE

SAN JOSE, CA • SAN JOSE MARRIOTT HOTEL

Hosted in a state-of-the-art hotel and conference center, this full day working conference will begin with a plenary session to share our vision for the next decade's Perennial Season for Nonviolence and Peace. Multi-track afternoon breakout sessions will be designed to support your future work and will feature tutorial conversations between youth delegates and Living Legends, along with strategy, design and resource sharing seminars led by you and your SNV task force leader peers.

Breakout sessions will include interfaith healing, youth leadership, nonviolent policy change, the environment, family, and schools; offering proven tools to craft an internal and external culture of nonviolence. This is the leading edge "beehive" model of peer leadership we have been longing for in the conferencing arena. You'll be astonished at the effective collaboration accomplished in a setting designed to include and expand the core principles of your existing achievements.

LIVING LEGENDS PRIVATE LUNCHEON

Mid-day our Distinguished Sponsors will be invited to participate in a private luncheon with Living Legends of Nonviolence, key Season for

Nonviolence and Association for Global New Thought leaders, and other Gandhi King contemporaries for a personalized, intimate discussion of the need for nonviolent activism in today's culture.

COMPASSION BANQUET

The day culminates in a Compassion Banquet featuring a Face-to-Face & Heart-to-Heart ceremony, mutually honoring Living Legends of Nonviolence as well as the task force leaders and spiritually-motivated activists who have led the way.

SATURDAY, APRIL 21, 2007

PEACE TRAIN PROCESSION

SAN JOSE, CA TO LOS ANGELES, CA

Another good night's sleep and the Peace Train procession heads for home at 10:00 am. With working sessions behind us and many new contacts and commitments forged, the final leg of this traveling conference is designed to keep our intentions on the right track. Not only will friendships be secured, but at the moment when most conferences abruptly end, we will have the magical opportunity to anchor our accomplishments in prayer, meditation, connectivity and action toward a Perennial Season for Nonviolence and Peace.

DISTINGUISHED PRESENTERS INCLUDE:

We anticipate gathering a full list of distinguished presenters from around the globe. As of October 15, 2006, the following world-renowned presenters have confirmed their attendance at this once in a life time event:

DR. ARUN GANDHI

CREDENTIALS

Dr. Arun Gandhi is the co-founder of the Gandhi King Season for Nonviolence, and the M.K. Gandhi Institute for Nonviolence. Born in 1934 in Durban, South Africa, Arun is the fifth grandson of India's legendary leader, Mohandas K. "Mahatma" Gandhi. Growing up under the discriminatory apartheid laws of South Africa, he was beaten by "white" South Africans for being too black and "black" South Africans for being too white; so, Arun sought eye-for-an-eye justice. However, he learned from his parents and grandparents that justice does not mean revenge, it means transforming the opponent through love and suffering. Arun continues to share these lessons all around the world. The M.K. Gandhi Institute for Nonviolence was founded in 1991 Arun and his wife, Sunanda. For the past five years, he has participated in the Renaissance Weekend deliberations with President Clinton and other well-respected Rhodes Scholars. Arun and Sunanda travel almost year-round all over the world speaking and teaching about nonviolence and promoting the work of the Gandhi Institute

YOLANDA KING

CREDENTIALS

Yolanda King is the first-born daughter of Coretta Scott King and Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. She is the Founder and CEO of Higher Ground Productions, a dynamic voice among twenty-first century speakers. Yolanda's mission is to encourage personal growth and positive social change through her artistic endeavors, including acting, producing, speaking and teaching. It is King's passion for peace and positive change that prompted her vision for founding Higher Ground Productions, an organization dedicated to teaching people to celebrate diversity and embrace unity. Yolanda King has performed or lectured in 49 US states as well as in Europe, Africa and Asia for educational, business, religious and civic organizations. She is the co-author of Open My Eyes, Open My Soul, which demonstrates her commitment to raise awareness and enhance understanding about the importance of diversity. In an effort to help groups and individuals find more personal freedom, King has joined forces with a Life Coach and created her new book entitled Embracing Your Power in 30 Days, a Journey of Self-Discovery and Personal Freedom.

DISTINGUISHED PRESENTERS INCLUDE:

ELA GANDHI

CREDENTIALS

Mrs. Ela Gandhi is a former member of Parliament in the Republic of South Africa. A qualified social worker by profession, Ela Gandhi has been driven by a community spirit of social and political activism since her childhood. She consistently works to ensure that the voices of the voiceless are heard, directing her work as a South African activist towards raising the issues of the oppressed. Working as a social worker, Mrs. Gandhi was put on house arrest for 8 years after attempting to mobilize the community to take up their own issues. During the RSA negotiations process she was selected as one of the representatives of her organization to represent the people. She was then selected to be on the list of candidates for parliament and was sent to parliament for two terms, resigning from parliament in January 2003. At present, she is Editor and Chairperson of the Board of management of Satyagraha - In pursuit of Truth - a nonprofit organization, which runs a newspaper promoting Gandhian ideals. She is secretary of the Gandhi Development Trust, chairperson of the Domestic Violence Help Line, the Mahatma Gandhi Handicraft Centre, and Trustee of the Mahatma Gandhi Trust which was donated to the Natal Indian Congress when Gandhi left South Africa in 1914. She is a member on the Advisory Boards of Unilever Ethics Centre, International Advisory Board of the World Parliament of Religions and Advisory Board of the Ahimsa Centre, in California. She is Vice President of the South African Chapter of World Conference on Religion and Peace and is on the ANC's Commission on Religious Affairs.

DR. BERNARD LAFAYETTE, JR., ED.D.

CREDENTIALS

Dr. Bernard LaFayette, Jr. is the director of the Center for Nonviolence and Peace Studies. LaFayette has been a Civil Rights Movement activist, minister, educator, lecturer, and is an authority on the strategy on nonviolent social change for over 40 years. In 1960, he co-founded the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee (SNCC). He was a leader of the 1960 Nashville Movement, on the Freedom Rides, and the 1965 Selma Movement. He directed the Alabama Voter Registration Project in 1962, and he was appointed National Program Administrator for the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) and National Coordinator of the 1968 Poor Peoples' Campaign by Martin Luther King, Jr. In addition, Dr. LaFayette has served as Director of Peace and Justice in Latin America; Chairperson of the Consortium on Peace Research, Education and Development; Director of the PUSH Excel Institute; and minister of the Westminster Presbyterian Church in Tuskegee, Alabama. Dr. LaFayette is an ordained minister who earned his B.A. from the American Baptist Theological Seminary in Nashville, Tennessee. LaFayette also received his Ed. M. and Ed. D. from Harvard University.

DISTINGUISHED PRESENTERS INCLUDE:

DR. A.T. ARIYARATNE

CREDENTIALS

Dr. Ariyaratne is the founder and president of the Sarvodaya Shramadana Movement in Sri Lanka. Based on Buddhist and Gandhian principles, the Sarvodaya Movement was founded by Ariyaratne 47 years ago, and is now the world's largest spiritually-based people's development movement working in 15,000 villages in Sri Lanka. Dr. Ariyaratne works for social and economic justice for the poorest of the poor in Sri Lanka and in the world. Sarvodaya means "the awakening of all" and Shramadana means sharing. The essence of the movement is that "Everybody Wakes Up through Sharing Labor, Energy, Resources, and Love." Dr. Ariyaratne has described the goal of Sarvodaya as a "dual awakening": the awakening of the individual and the awakening of society. Sarvodaya has mobilized tens of thousands of people to create housing, water projects, solar energy, food production, pre-school programs, legal services, women's projects, orphanages, child welfare agencies, village banks, and more. Dr. Ariyaratne has also led some of the world's largest peace marches and meditations to address the conflict in his country, with 650,000 people gathering in Sri Lanka in 2004. For his development work and his peace activities, Dr. Ariyaratne has received numerous international awards, including: the Magsaysay Award for Community Leadership from the Philippines (1969), the King Boudouin Award for International Development from Belgium (1982), the Niwano Peace Prize from Japan (1992), and the Mahatma Gandhi Peace Prize from the Government of India (1996). Working with all religions and all ethnic groups, Dr. Ariyaratne has described Sarvodaya as "the essence of religion", because it seeks to unite all people to work together to build a nonviolent and cooperative society.

CREDENTIALS

Dr. Marshall Rosenberg is the founder and director of educational services for the Center for Nonviolent Communication. Growing up in a turbulent Detroit neighborhood, Dr. Rosenberg developed a keen interest in new forms of communication that would provide peaceful alternatives to the violence he encountered. His interest led to a doctorate in clinical psychology from the University of Wisconsin in 1961, where he studied under Carl Rogers. His subsequent life experience and study of comparative religion motivated him to develop the Nonviolent Communication (NVC) process. He founded the Center for Nonviolent Communication in 1984, an international nonprofit peacemaking organization, which is now affiliated with more than 180 certified NVC trainers in 35 countries around the globe. Dr. Rosenberg is the author of Speak Peace in a World of Conflict, and the bestselling Nonviolent Communication: A Language of Life. He is the 2006 recipient of the Global Village Foundation's Bridge of Peace Award, and the Association of Unity Churches International 2006 Light of God Expressing Award. He is also an Honorary Board member of the International Coalition for the Decade for the Promotion of a Culture of Nonviolence and Peace for the Children of the World, a position shared with Nobel Peace Prize Laureates, Desmond Tutu and the Dalai Lama. Rosenberg spends more than 250 days each year traveling the globe, teaching his world-renowned Nonviolent Communication (NVC) process in hundreds of local communities, at national conferences, and in some of the most impoverished, war-torn states of the world.
