ABOUT THE EVENING:

The focus of the evening will be on The Gandhi, King, Chavez, Season of Peace and Nonviolence and will include many ways and means to achieve this on both a personal and global level.

In “The Complete Interview “ of Paul Hawken, we have an opportunity to hear this environmentalist, entrepreneur, and author, presents his thoughts and feelings about peace and ecology. His important work includes starting ecological businesses, writing about the impact of commerce on living systems, and consulting with heads of state and CEO’s on economic development, industrial ecology and environmental policy.

In addition to the film screening, there will be opportunity for viewers to have an open discussion about Peace, Ecology and Culture led by Facilitators John Farman and Tamera Peters. There will be time to express your views and ideas on how we as individuals and community members may support our own community, the environment, and the ultimate goal of World Peace.

The evening will highlight hands-on ways to practice random acts of kindness and peace via the GenerosiTree, “64 Ways in 64 Days” and the Peace Pilgrim Program.

ABOUT THE SEASON FOR NONVIOLENCE

The Season for Nonviolence commemorates the 64 days – January 30th through April 4th – between the memorial anniversaries of Mahatma Gandhi and Rev. Martin Luther King, Jr. The Season’s purpose is to create an awareness of nonviolent principles and practices as a powerful way to heal, transform and empower people.
